

You are invited to meet Julie Graham, Education and Network Coordinator for KAIROS who will be visiting Sioux Lookout on Wednesday, October 1st, 2008. Julie will give an overview of this organization's social justice work and lead a discussion on how we can use the resources at a local level.

There will be an afternoon session and an evening for folks who are working during the day.

Date: Wednesday, October 1st
Time: 1:30 – 4:00 or 7:00 p.m. – 9:30
Place: St. Andrew's United Church
Sioux Lookout

The current agenda and mandate of KAIROS reflect dedication to action and education in the following priority areas:

- Ecological justice
- Indigenous rights
- Canadian social development (including anti-poverty advocacy and funding, and refugees/migrants)
- International human rights
- Global economic justice (including corporate social responsibility and global trade and debt issues)
- Global partnerships

For more information call:

Terry Lynne Jewell @ 737-2831 or email jewell@gosiouxlookout.com

www.kairoscanada.org